

European Day of Languages

Languages open hearts and minds

26.09.2025

Program

Time	Activity					Room/Audience
10h00-11h30	Opening  How do languages open hearts and minds? A conversation with author and illustrator Lucy Pepper Chairs: Matthew Mason and Rita Bueno Maia					Auditorium 1
11h30-13h00	Language taster workshops
	LGP – Portuguese Sign Language Room 331	Spanish  Room 143	German  Room 426	Italian  Room 232	Chinese  Room 132
LUNCH BREAK (13h00-13h45): Workshops for faculty and staff – Um gostinho de... German   Spanish   French Rooms: 231   232   244
14h00-15h00	Language taster workshops
	Japanese  Room 232	Spanish  Room 132	German  Room 311	French  Room 133	Korean  Room 143
SHORT BREAK
15h00-17h00	Language wall The most beautiful word in my language What is the most beautiful word in your first language? Share it, translate it and tell us why it's the most beautiful.  Tandem: language matchmaking Find a language partner for the semester, learn their language, teach them yours! Pair to share, care to learn.  European Day of Languages Poster Competition Scan the QR code, choose your favorite to send to Brussels!  Open mic: What language is this? Read a poem, tell a joke, say a sentence or tongue twister in your language. Can you guess the language? Can you repeat the sentence?  Language and food corner Language-based idioms: pin yours, try to translate others.					FCH building, main entrance          Corridor (Cados-Auditorium 3)