

ASIAN STUDIES & INDIAN OCEAN SUMMER SCHOOL

Organized by
Universidade Católica (Lisbon) & Aga Khan University (London)
Lisbon, September 5-8, 2022

PROGRAMME

Day 1 Morning
Universidade Católica Campus
Descobrimientos Portugueses Room
Biblioteca João Paulo II Building, floor 1

9.30 – 9.45	Nelson Ribeiro, Dean (FCH-UCP) Leif Stenberg, Dean (ISMC-AKU)	Opening Remarks
9.45 – 10.30 Chair Jorge Santos Alves (FCH-UCP)	Dejanirah Couto (EPHE, Paris) (Lecture)	Early Modern Diplomacy and Diplomatics: Southeast Asian correspondence at the time of Suleyman the Magnificent
10.30-11.00	Alex Bellem (ISMC-AKU)	The world around Arabic: contact and variation in the languages of West Asia
11.00-11.30	Coffee Break
11.30-12.00	Beatriz Hernández (FCH-UCP)	China gets ready for the metaverse: the unprecedented experience of NFTs and luxe in the virtual world
12.00-12.30	Sanaa Alimia (ISMC-AKU)	Border Making in South Asia: 75 Years after Partition (Afghanistan, Pakistan, India, and Bangladesh)
12.30-13.00	Discussion

Day 1 Afternoon
Universidade Católica Campus
Descobrimientos Portugueses Room
Biblioteca João Paulo II Building, floor 1

14.30-15.00 Chair Stéphane Pradines (ISMC-AKU)	Shaheera Pesnani (IIS-AKU)	The heritage of Gwadar: Impact of CPEC (China- Pakistan Economic Corridor)
15.00-15.30	João Pedro Oliveira (Ph.D. candidate FCH-UCP)	The Humorous Pilgrimage: Typology of Hoca Nasreddin tales in the Muslim World
15.30-16.00	Chafim Belson Braga (CARIM-UEM)	Maritime Pre-colonial Urban Remains in the Eastern African Coast: Traditional Curatorial of Somaná site, Mozambique
16.00-16.30	António Vilhena de Carvalho (FCH-UCP)	The Collective Memory and China's cultural goods restitution's policy – The Day After
16.30-17.00	Discussion

Day 2 Morning
Museu do Oriente
Beijing Room

10.00-10.45 Chair Leif Stenberg (ISMC-AKU)	Ricardo Duarte (UEM) (Lecture)	Submarine archaeology and wrecks in Mozambique
10.45-11.15	Walid Ghaly (AKU)	Encountering Indian Ocean Cultures through the art of writing and illuminating the Qur'an
11.15-11.30	Coffee Break
11.30-12.00	João Teles e Cunha (FCH-UCP)	Giving a new meaning to 'dār al-amān': Hormuz and the survival strategies of a multi- confessional port-city under Portuguese protectorate (1515-1622)
12.30-13.00	Discussion

Day 2 Afternoon
Centro Científico e Cultural de Macau
Main Auditorium

15.00-15.30 Chair Ricardo Duarte (UEM)	Cláudia Ribeiro (MAS/FCH-UCP)	Xu Bing's Magic Carpet and Su Hui's Magic Poem: a Comparative Study
15.30-16.00	Zakiya Khan (ISMC-AKU)	Death, Burial and Social Memory: A Cross- Religious Study of Chiragh e Roshan in Chitral, Pakistan and Central Asian Silk Roads
16.00-16.15	Coffee Break
16.15-16.45	Kim Dang Bao (Ph.D. Fellow FCT/CCCM)	Questioning the strategies behind the creation of Chữ Quốc Ngữ (the Vietnamese romanized script) 1620-1659.
16.45-17.15	Catarina Almeida (MAS/FCH-UCP)	Kimono Revival – Kimono Going International According to Three Case-studies
17.15-17.45	Discussion
17.45-18.00	Carmen Amado Mendes (President CCCM)	Closing address

Day 3 Morning
Jorge Welsh, Works of Art Gallery

10.00-10.45 Chair Dejanirah Couto (EPEH)	Bing Zhao (CNRS, Paris) (Lecture)	Does archaeological Chinese-style ceramics discovered in Indian Ocean can be used as chronological scale: A methodological history
10.45-11.15	Stéphane Pradines (ISMC-AKU)	Indian ocean trade and Swahili architecture
11.15-11.45	Jorge Santos Alves (FCH-UCP)	Issa Fukara al-Malabari, Ali Raja of Kannur, and Lord of the Maldives (1510-1525)
11.45-12.00	Coffee Break
12.00-12.30	Ibrar Karim (ISMC-AKU)	Histography of Islamic Art collections in the British Museum, and the Victoria & Albert Museum, and their representation of Muslim diasporas from the Indian Ocean
12.30-13.00	Discussion

Day 4 Morning
Universidade Católica Campus
Descobrimentos Portugueses Room
Biblioteca João Paulo II Building, floor 1

10.00-10.45 Chair Jorge Santos Alves (FCH-UCP)	Jorge Flores (CIUHCT-UL) (Lecture)	Ocean Corpus: What certain primary sources tell us about early modern maritime Asia
10.45-11.15	Talha Murat (ISMC-AKU)	Sufism in the late nineteenth century Egypt, Red Sea and Indian Ocean influences
11.15-11.30	Coffee Break
11.30-12.00	Bárbara Marques (MAS/FCH-UCP)	Sunshine Policy in South Korea. Moon Jae, unification policy and the Pyeongchang Olympics (2017 – 2018)
12.00-12.30	Celso Simbine (Ph.D. candidate UP)	Islam in South-eastern Africa: Material entanglements along the Mozambican coastline
12.30-13.00	Discussion

Day 4 Afternoon
Universidade Católica Campus
Descobrimientos Portuguese Room
Building Biblioteca João Paulo II, floor 1

15.00-15.30 Chair Bing Zhao (CNRS)	Jeff Tan (ISMC-AKU)	What drives Islamisation? The religious bureaucracy and patronage in Malaysia
15.30-16.00	Tânia Ganito (ISCSP-UL/CECC)	Rebuilding lost images: the memory work of Wang Bing and Rithy Panh
16.00-16.15	Coffee Break
16.15-16.45	Zhou Shenglan (FCH-UCP)	George Washington, Confucius, and the Red Lanterns: the reinvention of the invented memories about the 'heroes' in 1990s Chinese Animation
16.45-17.15	Leif Stenberg (ISMC-AKU)	Football around the Indian Ocean: Politics, Religion, and Identities
17.15-17.45	Discussion
17.45-18.00	Closing Remarks	